THE SUIT AGAINST NUTTING.

IT IS DISMISSED BY THE WORTHINGTON CORPORATION.

Jurisdiction of the Circuit Court Attacked—Depositions of the Officers of the Miowera.

The Worthington company has discontinued its action against L. B. Nutting, the latter refunding to the corporation $5,793.01, which the company charged belonged to it, and which it alleges Nutting deposited to his personal account in the Bank of Hawaii.

In the case of C. F. Jenne vs. James Campbell and Thomas A. Pettus, a garnishee action, the defendant's attorney has filed a motion that plaintiff be required to give security to pay the costs of the action, as Jenne is not a resident of the Islands, nor within the jurisdiction of the court; that the costs will probably exceed $200.

The oath of Wray Taylor as Commissioner of Agriculture and Forestry has been filed. It was administered by Justice of the Supreme Court Galbraith.

A motion to place the case of Elizabeth Kelihaue vs. Catherine Vierra on the calendar has been made by the plaintiff's attorneys.

The attorneys for the defendants in the case of Thomas Milner Harrison vs. J. A. Macoun, F. B. McStocker, L. C. Ables and Dorothea Emerson, defendants, in a special plea to jurisdiction, contend that the Circuit Court has been without jurisdiction to hear and determine the case since June 14, 1900, for the reason that the same is a controversy between a citizen or subject of a foreign State and citizens of the Territory of Hawaii, and that the District Court of the United States for the Territory is vested with full and exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all controversies between subjects of foreign States and citizens of the Territory. The defendants pray judgment, if the Circuit Court will, or ought to have further cognizance of the case.

In the case of George M. Deacon, bankrupt appellant, a stipulation has been filed that the Supreme Court shall pass upon the sole issue, "Did the Circuit Court sitting at the trial of said case, commit error in overruling the motion of said Deacon, by which Defendant asked of the trial judge that a certain portion of the bankrupt's property be set aside for the use of the bankrupt according to Section 1894 of the Civil Laws of 1897?"

It is stipulated by the attorneys in the case of John D. Jones vs. Francisco D. E. Lima et al., that the degree rendered in the case by the judge of the Fourth Circuit Court, Island of Hawaii, be set aside and that the case be remanded.

The attorneys of Elizabeth C. Greenwald vs. M. G. Silva and appellant, ask that the case on appeal to the Supreme Court be dismissed on the ground that the appeal motion is imperfect.

In the case of Ernest Thyons vs. Canadian-Australian Steamship Company, the defendant moves the court that the depositions of the captain, the first and second officers and the doctor of the steamship Miowera be taken upon the next arrival of the steamer.

Judge Stanley has allowed the exception of the attorneys of C. F. Jenne to except Claus Spreckels & Co. in the case of C. F. Jenne vs. James Campbell and Thomas Pettus. The garnishees discharged are W. G. Irwin, Henry Waterhouse, C. Dickey and the Hawaiian Automobile Company.

In the case of J. J. Byrne vs. P. J. Voeller, a stipulation has been filed that defendant shall have until July 10 in which to file exceptions.

Judge Stanley has taken the matter of Rita C. Tewksbury, plaintiff, vs. Antonio G. Cunha, Zida Cunha and Frank A. Cunha, her husband; Mary Camara, wife of J. M. Camara, and J. M. Camara, her husband, under advisement. The action involves the sale of a parcel of land on Punchbowl.

Piwi Panawea has filed a petition asking that she be declared the owner of $441.71. This sum was deposited in the Postal Savings Bank by Samuel K. Kahai. The petitioner states that the money belongs to her, as Kahai was her manager, and deposited it in his own name.

MANAGER SCOTT TAKES A TRIP.

Will Visit Chicago—Labor Troubles on Hawaii Probably Over.

J. A. Scott, Manager of the Hilo Sugar Co., Wainuku, Hawaii, who left on the Rio Sunday and had the following to say just before the vessel sailed:

"I expect to be gone about six weeks, going as far as east as Chicago. I do not wish to state the nature of my business further than it is plantation business. The labor situation is very quiet on Hawaii now and I would not be surprised if the worst of it was over; though it is one of those things that you can not tell much about. It may break out again, but I do not look for it. Anyway, there is less trouble in the towns than in the interior. In the towns we can get men to take the place of striking laborers, but in the interior the Japanese have the best of them. Our men are all at work at satisfactory wages."

When asked if the trust contracts with the sugar plantations were not about to expire, he replied: "I understand that almost all the plantation contracts with the sugar trust expire some time this year and so far that very few of them have been renewed. I have heard some talk of some of them having been renewed, but I could not say positively as to these statements. I personally know nothing about it, as it is a matter which lies in the hands of the plantation agents."
